

Hosting International Students!

The College of Extended Learning at Cal State San Bernardino is seeking families to host visiting international students for programs ranging from one week to five months.

This opportunity is an exciting and rewarding experience including:

- Educating both host families and international students
- Introducing your family to a new culture and language
- Creating memories and friendships that will last a lifetime

The host family needs to provide*:

- A safe environment
- A private room
- Transportation to and from CSUSB campus
- Meals

*compensation is provided by the student during their stay
