Study in the USA Program allows students to enroll in university degree-credit courses at the undergraduate level on a space-available basis and study alongside American students. Academic credits earned at California State University, San Bernardino (CSUSB) may be transferred to participants' home institution and counted toward degree requirements.

About the program
Students may enroll in 10, 20 or 30 weeks of study at the undergraduate level with 12 units per quarter. A maximum of 36 units can be applied toward a bachelor's degree at CSUSB (subject to approval by the applicable academic department).

Benefits
- Earn credits at CSUSB that may be transferred to home institution and be counted toward degree requirements
- Select from over 2,000 undergraduate and graduate courses
- Enjoy CSUSB's central location and weather in Southern California
- Improve English language skills and expand international network
- Experience a rich cultural and academic opportunity while establishing lasting friendships

Campus Life at CSUSB
Students at CSUSB have the opportunity to engage in campus life and interact with a variety of other students from diverse backgrounds and cultures by participating in activities, clubs and events. The campus has six colleges, over 75 undergraduate and graduate programs and enrolls more than 20,000 students.

University Rankings
CSUSB is an accredited university and ranked by U.S. News and World Report, Princeton Review and Forbes Magazine among the top universities in the western United States. The European CEO magazine named the CSUSB's Jack H. Brown College of Business and Public Administration one of the most innovative MBA programs in the world.
